

Section 10

Notes:

1. All work to be done according to current regulations and technology rules, including the use of BIM.
2. In the event of any doubt, uncertainty or unforeseen circumstances consultation with the architect is needed to clarify progress of work.
3. Drawing of individual professions and other documentation on the site are part of the project. Any changes to the drawing during the construction process are the responsibility of the respective professions and not the architect.
